New Snag Hits Library; Another Year Delay Seen

DOELGER MAY MOVE SITE AS RESULT OF ZONING

Planning commissioners this Tuesday night turned down request of Henry Doelger Builder Inc. for rezoning residential property at the end of Fairlawn avenue to make way for an apartment project.

The action may have the effect of delaying acquisition of the Westlake library site on Southgate for more than a year.

The property Doelger had sought zoned to R-3 status is divided into three pieces, one zoned residential, one unclassified, and one commercial.

Since Doelger failed to receive the rezoning for his apartment project, he may now move the library site west on Southgate to the piece which was turned down for apartment zoning, thereby making use of the present library site for commercial projects. Public buildings can be erected in any zoning classification.

Tied Up In Court

If location of the library site is moved west, the parcel will be involved in the Ocean Shore right of way case, now under appeal by the railway. The Doelger firm will not be able to transfer title of the land to the city until the Ocean Shore appeal is decided, which is expected to take at least a year.

The planners turned Doelger's zoning request after hearing protests of many homeowners in the area, who maintained that the zoning should remain unchanged.

Just two weeks ago the library commission criticized the long delay in acquiring the Westlake library site, one member charging that the matter was being held up in the planning commission. It was this matter to which he was referring.

Lengthy Delay

Although it has been more than a year since the city started negotiations for the Westlake library site, numerous legal problems have stymied the transaction.

The $10,000 price for the property was allocated by the council last year, but Doelger has retained title to the land, pending outcome of the zoning matters.

Residency For DC Workers To Be Cut

An easing of residency requirements was among changes incorporated in the new civil service rules and regulations Monday as the personnel board met in a six-hour session to prepare the revised document for submission to the city council.

Under the proposed ruling, new employees would not have to become Daly City residents until six months after their permanent appointment to a civil service position. As it now stands, an employee must become a resident of the city upon completion of his probationary period.

The civil service rules do not require that prospective job candidates be Daly City residents at the time of filing for examination, but many job notices stipulate that present residency is a requirement.

City Manager Howard Stites explained that the city's policy has been to require present residency for any jobs where there appears to be sufficient qualified local candidates.

Also proposed as part of the rules is a driving test which will be given to all city employees who operate motor vehicles. The test will consist of three parts—reaction, visual and audio.

The new rules and regulations are scheduled to be submitted to the council at the December 4 study session.

Westmoor Dedication Section In This Issue

Formal dedication ceremonies for the new high school will be held December 15.

S. F. Final Appeal On Pershing School Monday

City of San Francisco's last-ditch effort to thwart use of its property for a Daly City school will be made Monday morning before the state allocations board in Sacramento, starting at 10 a.m.

San Francisco officials have drawn up plans for the Gen. Pershing school, excluding the 3.5 acres of San Francisco land which Jefferson Elementary school authorities claim are necessary to meet state land requirements.

The state allocations board, in tentatively approving the Jefferson plans, has ordered San Francisco officials to present new evidence in their plea or abandon their protest.

Problems Already In Pacifica

An estimated 350 people will jam the auditorium of the Vallemar school this Friday night at 8 p.m. to see Pacifica's five councilmen installed as the governing body of San Mateo county's newest city. The incorporation is expected to become official earlier this Friday.

Already the neophyte councilmen have been faced with a major problem of diplomacy. The auditorium of the Vallemar school, where the induction ceremonies will be held, seats only 350 persons.

Therefore, only 350 personal invitations are being mailed out for reserved seats. But quite a few more than that number have felt they should receive invitations, according to Mrs. Carl McCarthy, chairman of the invitations committee.

The general public is invited, she said, but seats will not be available in the main ceremonial room.

Mrs. McCarthy said she had

City Water Tank Still Has Bugs

Daly City's 50,000 gallon wooden water tank failed the purity test again this week, for the fourth straight time.

The stand-by tank, purchased to augment the larger reservoir west of Skyline, showed a B Coli bacteria count of 16 Monday, far in excess of the 2.2 permissable under county health standards.

Under terms of the contract with Santa Fe Tank Co., the $7930 vessel could be returned to the contractor without cost to the city, since it has failed to meet health specifications. Such was the fate of a 30,000 gallon wooden tank tested here early last year. After a series of tests showed a dangerous bacteria count, the tank, formerly used for wine storage, was returned to its owners.

Public Works Director Otis Calhoun said, however, that further tests would be made on the new tank with different type cleansers and purifiers that may not show the same reaction to redwood.

It has definitely been determined that the dangerous organisms exist inside the tank, and not in the water supply.

Spokesman for the Santa Fe firm said they have never had this trouble with their new tanks before, but Calhoun said the problem had been encountered in other cities.

Calhoun said that unless the council so requested at Monday's meeting, his crews would continue with tests until the tank is deemed safe for storing the public water supply. "We could return the tank, but we'd just be out that much more time."

The city purchased the first tank shortly after the March 22 earthquake, to be used as a stand-by supply while the 1,600,000 gallon Westlake reservoir, cracked by the quake, was being repaired.

Mrs. ADALIA MARQUEZ, Daly City authoress whose most recent literary product is "Blood on the Rising Sun," will be honored at a cocktail party Sunday.

The party, to plug the new book, is being given by BASHIR AHMED.

Jewell avenue in Colma, although a dead-end street, has been designated a major public thoroughfare, thereby entitling the city to state financial aid in improving the roadway.

The Jewell avenue project is probably the largest in Colma's history. The town hall fronts on Jewell, which could be the reason the street has been declared a major thoroughfare.

Daly City is the only city in the county that has two schools with athletic teams in the Peninsula Athletic league.

But they might as well not have had any last weekend, as between the two of them they couldn't score one point on the

Lions To Paint House For DC Blind Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Coy L. Stamp and their two-year-old son have been selected as "blind family of the year" by the Daly City Colma Lions club.

Mr. and Mrs. Stamp, both blind since birth, reside at 129 Shakespeare with their son, who has normal vision.

Stamp, 43, was graduated from the Muskegee School for the Blind in Oklahoma.

To provide for his family and make payments on the home he purchased three years ago, Stamp works as a piano tuner and door to door broom salesman.

The Lions board of directors have set aside Saturday and Sunday, December 7 and 8, as work days for the Lions, who will paint the interior of the Stamp home. A "Coy Stamp Fund" has been established to provide money for putting asbestos siding on the outside of the home.

The public is urged by the Lions to give to the cause and may send donations to the fund at 40 Hillcrest drive, Daly City.

Boosters Hit Again

Car boosters struck again Monday at the parking lot on Junipero Serra adjacent to the Serra theater.

Victim was Mrs. Emanuel Demarest, 791 S. Mayfair, who returned after the show to her 1955 vehicle to find both rear wheels and tires gone.

Appointment Looms For City Librarian

Daly City may have a new librarian by the end of the week.

The personnel board is concluding interviews of the two top candidates to fill the position which has been vacant since Miss Patricia Clark resigned late this summer.

Meat Cutter Didn't Mind Being Arrested So Gendarmes Oblige

A 23-year-old meat cutter, who reported to the police station after police graciously told him to "go home and sober up," was arrested at his own request early Sunday morning.

Booked was Timothy P. Davis, of 44 Westlake avenue, apartment F. Officers Frank Murray and Ralph Warren gave Davis a "break" at 2:25 a.m. when the meat cutter was reported causing a fuss at the Do-Nut Hole. Waitresses said Davis and another guy had been fighting inside the eatery.

The other combatant was nowhere in sight, so the cops advised Davis to head home and everything would be forgotten.

A few minutes later, the meat cutter stumbled into the station, caused more confusion, and got his wish—a few hours in the clink.

APPROVED charter for the new Daly City Police Athletic League is presented by Supervisor Court Judge Frank Blum, to Officer John Cuneman (left), PAL president. Visibly pleased is Police Chief Roland Petrocchi. First project for the PAL is a boxing tournament, early next year, for local youngsters, aged 8 to 18. A year-round sports schedule will be sponsored by the police to help curb juvenile delinquency. Blum drafted the charter when he was city attorney here.

Jurors Study Uniform Plans For School Bldg.

Use of uniform plans as a means to cut costs of school construction may be one of the recommendations submitted by the San Mateo county grand jury in its final report now under preparation.

The jury's various recommendations for charter changes will be turned over to the county charter study commission at a joint meeting of the two groups to be held in the near future.

Meeting Monday to begin drafting of its final report, the jury also considered recommending that election of supervisors be by district rather than at large, and that the county's five supervisorial districts be reapportioned.

Also up for study is a report that the volume of narcotics traffic is increasing in San Mateo county. Chief Inspector A. L. Lamport of the district attorney's office will be asked to appear before the grand jury to report on this charge.

Katherine Locke Funeral Service

Funeral services Monday morning paid final tribute to Mrs. Katherine Marie Locke, 63, of 1851 Louvaine drive, who died November 14 at her home.

An employe of Sterling Furniture company, she was a native of San Francisco and lived in Broadmoor five years. She was a member of the Carpet, Linoleum and Soft-Tile Workers' Union, Local 1235, and Presidio Parlor 148, Native Daughters of the Golden West.

San Mateo Youth Captured After Purse Theft

An 18-year-old San Mateo delinquent was picked up by Daly City police Friday night for robbing a local housewife of her purse the evening before on Gambetta street.

Jim Gibson Gray, in trouble many times for juvenile offenses, was turned over to Inspector Bruno Conci at San Mateo police headquarters. A license check led to Gray's arrest.

Mrs. Dorothy McDonald, 41, of 179 Thiers street, and her daughter, Noreen, 14, were walking home at 8 p.m. when Gray approached them. They said he made a quick grab for the purse, ran down the street, jumped into a black coupe and sped away.

Mrs. McDonald said the purse contained $3.91 in change and valuable identification cards and papers.

The youth has been charged with robbery instead of petty theft because he is no longer considered a juvenile due to his age. He will be arraigned in municipal court Tuesday.

'Missing' W'moor Girl Believed Bound For Reno

Daly City police this week filed a missing persons report on a 16-year-old Westmoor High girl, whose parents believe she may be headed for Reno to marry her 18-year-old boy friend.

Gone since Monday afternoon is Linda Lou Stagno, 46 Crestwood drive, apartment 8. A classmate said she last saw Linda with the youth, a Santa Clara resident, Monday after school.

Linda's father told Juvenile Officer Charles Terry that his daughter had been upset over recent arguments with her folks regarding the boy friend.

Linda is described as a blonde, 5-4, and about 128

Peak Audience Honors Rabbi Of Temple Judea

Temple Judea Men's Club activities reached a high point last Wednesday evening at the Rabbi's Night Dinner held at the Stonestown YMCA with a capacity attendance.

In an atmosphere of good fellowship, Temple members augmented by numerous guests were provided with a delicious dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Halpern.

Rabbi Irving F. Reichart, in the question and answer program which followed, elicited a tremendous response with his forthright, articulate and learned replies, Matching his erudition was the Rabbi's enthusiasm and confidence in the prospects for our Temple which he denominated as "Temple Judea—the Temple with a future."

President Howard Samuel reported that the Men's Club acquired several new members and that many of the guests became prospective Temple members "as a result of this most stimulating and successful evening."

This Friday evening, November 22, Sabbath Services will be held in the Temple House, 95 South Mayfair avenue, Westlake, at 8:30 p.m. Rabbi Reichart will preach and Benjamin Roth wil lchant the traditional melodies. Mrs. Frank Langfelder will kindle the Sabbath lights.

One of the most attractive features of the Sabbath Service is the participation of the congregation in the singing of the Kiddush, the responses, and other traditional melodies. For the benefit of new members who wish to learn these chants and hymns, as well as for old members who would like to brush up on them, Dr. Beck and Roth will conduct an informal singing class on Fridays at 8 p.m., before the service.

been questioned as to what the basis was for sending invitations to the ceremonies, since so many individuals had played a part in Pacifica's incorporation.

"We had to put invitations on the basis of who happened to hold the important jobs in the community. We couldn't decide it on the basis of who were the important people," Mrs. McCarthy said.

Those invited to the installation were: presidents of all Coastside organizations, mayors of the other 14 Peninsula cities, elected national, state and county officials, students from the local schools, owner or manager of every Coastside business, professional men with local offices, managers of all utilities and services and ministers.

All those receiving invitations will be seated in the reserved section in the auditorium.

"We may have missed somebody," said Mrs. McCarthy, "but it was the only fair way we could no it. We'll try to accommodate as many people as possible outside the auditorium."

Serving on the invitations committee with Mrs. McCarthy were Mrs. Frederick Lucas, James Cooper and Mrs. Alan Eisan.

RECALL FAILS AGAINST S.S.F. SCHOOL TRUSTEES

There were 2801 "yes" votes to recall Leo J. Eserini, 3965 "no" votes. Against trustee G. Vernon Finacom there were 2798 "yes" votes, 3866 "no" ballots.

The recall election climaxed a long, bitterly-fought battle over South San Francisco school district policies. Eserini and Finacom are members of a three-man majority that wants to fire Superintendent James C. Cherry.

Third member of the board majority, John Oberst, is contesting his recall petition in court.

The ethics commission of the California Teachers association recommended early this year that all five trustees and Cherry resign their positions.

JEFFERSON 'VERSUS' WESTMOOR

Included in this issue of the paper is a special eight-page section dedicated to the new Westmoor High school.

It seemed almost a tragic coincidence to learn last week, just one month from the date of the Westmoor dedication ceremonies, that at least one-third of the older Jefferson High school plant would have to be rehabilitated — or even demolished.

Today we are faced with two seeming opposites—the old, Jefferson High school, so weary with age that portions of it must be uprooted; and the spanking new, glass-encased Westmoor institution, ready to be "christened" as San Mateo county's newest educational facility.

But Jefferson has now what it will take Westmoor years to acquire—tradition, loyalty and the remembrances of the thousands of adults who have left its campus as graduates.

To acquire these attributes, any institution must of necessity be old. And since Jefferson is old, it is going to need a little refurbishing. It will most certainly not be abandoned and will continue to be, in the minds of long-time Daly City residents and pioneers, and even today's students, Daly City's number one high school.

Westmoor, of course, is really as much a part of Daly City as Jefferson. Like Jefferson, Westmoor was born of necessity. The space for secondary education was needed, the community provided it.

The fact that there is a Westmoor High school today to give services that the overcrowded Jefferson could not possibly provide is in itself tribute to the intelligence of Daly City residents.

There may be some resentment of Westmoor from a few old-timers, and some newcomers may look with disdain on the older Jefferson plant.

We're equally proud of both high schools.

County Citizens Speed Campaign Against Indecent Mags, Pictures

The smouldering disgust of parents against the flood of indecent literature and pornographic art available to youth has finally burst into an open flame, stated John Finigan, San Mateo county representative of the National Office of Decent Literature, as he addressed his committee recently.

The NODL main office in Chicago has a large staff of volunteer men and women who constantly keep watch on the magazines distribution throughout the nation. They publish a monthly list of magazines which they suggest be not made available for youth because it: 1) Glorifies crime or the criminal, 2) Holds lawful authority in disrespect, 3) Portrays sex offensively, 4) Features indecent photographs or illustrations.

Municipal Judge Thomas L. Bocci is chairman of this campaign to withdraw the filth from the children, thus helping to alleviate the social evils attendant with this type of merchandise.

Assemblyman Louis Francis from San Mateo county has carried the campaign for the county to the state. At present, he is investigating the legality of such sales.

J. Edgar Hoover, head of the F.B.I., stated recently in a national weekly magazine that a direct relationship could be traced to the increase in sex crimes and the heavy influx of filthy magazines on the market. Sex offenders, when questioned by investigators as to why and what precipitated their actions, have merely stated that "they read accounts of such action in sex books and crime magazines and they wanted to experience it for themselves."

Retailers who carry magazines claim that a lot of the filthy magazines are stolen by the kids, so there is little profit in them, anyway. Most store owners do not want these books and do not have to take them from the distributors, but they do not have the time to go through every magazine that comes into the store.

The NODL has a solution and Judge Bocci and his staff will present the problem and the solution to leaders from all cities in the county at San Mateo High school, 8 p.m., on Tuesday evening, December 10.

All officers of service organizations, church groups, PTA representatives, school officials and law enforcement agencies are invited to attend as well as any and all civic-minded citizens interested in the welfare of youth.

Paul Hupf, Daly City city attorney, was one of the first to answer the call for campaign workers.

For information and those interested in this campaign, call B. Pellisier, PL 5-7419; Harmon Hallett, PL 6-4035; Patrick Conway, DI 3-5367, and Robert Rodgers, EM 6-9335.

IS PEACE POSSIBLE? — Moshe Leshem of Israel's Ministry of Foreign Affairs will give his view on the subject at a San Francisco State College scholarship series lecture this Thursday, at 8 p.m., Room 101, science building, on the campus. He will show a film of the Negev area, Gulf of Akaba.

Broadmoor Sets Community-Wide Carol Program

The oldtime joys of caroling at Christmas time will be revived by the Broadmoor Property Owners Association this year when this group sponsors a five-day yuletide festival woven around this age-old tradition.

Details of this and other holiday plans were approved when the BPOA board of directors held its regular meeting last week.

Edward J. Lee, BPOA president, in announcing details of the caroling festival, pointed out that last year, the BPOA staged caroling programs at its manger display on the corner of 87th and Washington street. "Lack of time, however," said Lee, "prevented us from making the caroling project the success we hoped it would be."

This year, Lee appointed Mrs. Adriano G. Delfino, 1024 Washington street, to handle programming for the manger scene.

Sometime this week, letters will go out to pastors, Scout leaders and club officers inviting their respective groups to participate in a caroling contest. There will be two divisions—adult and children.

Opening on Friday night, December 20, at 8 p.m., the Christmas festival will feature each of these groups in a series of nightly caroling programs. The best five groups in each division will then vie for several cash awards during the final contest to be held Christmas Eve.

To add to the spirit of the season, the vacant lot where the manger display will be set up has been scheduled for general lighting. In addition, benches will be provided and a bonfire built to keep carolers and audience warm. Christmas Eve will also find the BPOA playing host with coffee, doughnuts and hot chocolate for the revelers.

Community groups or individuals interested in participating in the contest are advised to contact the contest chairman, Mrs. Delfino, at PL 5-1434, or drop a note off at the community center, giving name, address, telephone number and organization represented, if any.

Strictly For Veterans

Most boys and girls whose fathers died of war service can look forward to a college education with federal government aid after they reach age 18. But how many know they can start with California educational assistance in high school at the age of 16?

The eligibility factors for state and federal educational assistance are almost identical. A California requirement is state residence of the applicant but not of the deceased veteran for 5 years. State educational assistance to eligible young people amounts to $20 a month in high school and $40 a month in college. While it represents only a small part of the cost of school attendance, it serves as an incentive to getting a good education and is coupled with assistance and counseling from representatives of the State Department of Veterans Affairs.

State Benefits

Children may not enroll under the federal and state programs at the same time, but state benefits may be used before and after the federal grant. To receive state benefits, young people must have their applications accepted before their 21st birthdays.

The deceased parent need never have lived in California. Nor does he have to have been killed during active duty. His death at any time due to disease or injury incurred in wartime service is sufficient to qualify his survivors for state and federal educational aid.

A war veteran's widow, under similar circumstances, is also eligible for California educational aid which may help her earn a living later.

The American Legion Auxiliary offers several scholarships to students graduating from high school and to college students. Anyone interested may contact any Unit and receive the information for further educational opportunities.

Unit Doings

The district meeting of the VFW will be held in San Jose, November 24. Department Commander Fleming and Department President Stella Disbrow will make their official visit at this meeting. Members from Old Glory and Lake Merced Posts and Auxiliaries will attend.

All organizations are planning holiday activities and definite dates will be announced later. The gift shop at Palo Alto hospital will be set up November 30. Many from this area will work in the shop during the week of December 2 thru 6, helping the patients select and mail gifts to their families. Most ward parties will be held the week preceeding Christmas.

Daly City Post 410, American Legion, was host to the district commander, Roy Henderson, Thursday evening. Past Commanders Nichoias Chauses and Peter Bordson are at home recuperating from recent surgery. Comrade Bacigalupo is in Ft. Miley hospital. Past Commander John Matzek has just recovered from a very severe case of Asiatic flu.

Something For Everyone

By The Staff Of The Daly City Public Library

"Explore With Books" is the slogan which has been chosen to highlight the 39th annual National Children's Book Week starting November 17 and extending through November 23. The purpose of Book Week is to focus attention on the importance of good books for children.

The Daly City libraries are participating in the observance by extending an invitation to all boys and girls in the area to visit the children's room and be introduced to the fun of reading good books.

Books can play a vital part in the life of the growing child and Book Week emphasizes the value of bringing children and good books together early.

Highlight of the event will be a week-long display in the children's room of new books for the children of all ages and, for parents, some titles on books for children. A special book mark will be given each youngster that visits the library.

Both children and parents are urged to visit the library during Book Week. Seeing the children's books on display and examining old favorites on the shelves will also help many people to select interesting titles for Christmas gifts.

Come to your public libraries this week! The addresses are: Daly City public library, 6351 Mission street and Westlake-Broadmoor branch library, 34 Park Plaza drive in the Westlake Shopping Center.

Two For Tonight

By Leonore Brewer

In 1664 Jean Baptiste Poquelin wrote a satire on religious hypocrisy. Dependin upon how you look at it, it was a great success—it was banned immediately. The playwright's clerical enemies, apparently disliking the image seen in the mirror held up before them, were powerful enough to prevent further performances for five years, when it was revised and finally presented again.

The playwright is better known to us by his stage name, Moliere; the play is his comic masterpiece, "Tartuffe," the current offering of the San Francisco State College's second subscription season. Staged in the Arena Theater, it plays weekends only with final performances this Thursday and Friday, closing Saturday November 23

Since the hounds of censorship go baying after different scents these days, there is little likelihood that anyone will try such drastic action as was taken in the play's world premiere three hundred years ago.

High Quality

Actually, the Creative Arts Division doesn't need the box office hypo of a censorous blast from self-appointed guardians of the public morals. It's doing very nicely indeed, a reflection of the high quality productions State College audiences have come to expect.

The size of the cast prevents individual mention, but there are several excellent performances which must be noted. John Graham plays the rich merchant who has been sucked in by the pious hypocrite, Tartuffe. His interpertation has a rich hammy flavor well suited to the role.

Sandra Archer makes a perky saucy maid, considerably smarter than her master, and reminiscent to the maids found in Mozart's operas. Berenice Boynton as the merchant's wife brings a rich voice to the reading of her lines and Myrl Britton plays the role of his mother with authority.

A Plum

The plum role is of course Tartuffe (Geoffrey Lardner) who is a positive pillar of unselfish love and humility as he sanctimoniously goes about stealing the shirt off the back of his benefactor, the merchant. Lardner blocks out his character with broad strokes. His Tartuffe has definite Gilbert and Sullivan overtones, possibly because of his speaking voice, which is astonishingly similar to that of Martyn Green.

One word to the costume crew: Was that dust that arose every time some character jovially smote another on the chest?

Phyllis Lane Weds James W. Pedersen

Daly City newlyweds Phyllis Theresa Lane and James W. Pedersen have returned to a new home here following a week-long honeymoon at Lake Tahoe and Reno.

The couple exchanged vows October 12 at Our Lady of Perpetual Help, with Father Joseph Garrity the officiant.

The bride, an alumna of Jefferson High and Munson college, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred F. Lane, 79 Willits street.

The benedict's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jens Pedersen, 551 Niantic avenue. James is employed with a building firm. He also attended Jefferson.

Phyllis was attired for the nuptial fete in a ballerina length gown of white chantilly lace, enlightened by a fingertip veil. She carried a prayer book, white orchids and bouvardias.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Irene Scally, and Rueben Pgecido served as best man. Mrs. Marjorie Ray was bridesmaid.

EAGLES HALL was jammed October 12 when newly wed Mr. and Mrs. James W. Pedersen of Daly City sliced their three-tiered wedding cake, after nuptials at Our Lady of Perpetual Help. Both the bride, Phyllis Theresa Lane, and benedict attended Jefferson High. They are now living here on 2nd avenue.

JEFFERSON HI-LITES

With

Maxine Tebeau

Jefferson's band and drum majorettes, along with the bands from many other high schools in California, took a trip to the University of California's football field recently. The big occasion found 5,500 high school students massing to play three songs. Jefferson, Carlmont and South City were the schools from the North Peninsula who participated in this special event.

The Junior Class had their second meeting to discuss their prom, "An Affair To Remember." It was decided that dress is to be semi-formal. Tickets will cost $2 for Student Body Card holders, and $2.50 for others.

The Senior Class Assembly, which was originally scheduled for November 26, has been changed to Wednesday, November 27. Participating in the assembly will be: Jack Lewkowitz, Jerry Starr, Puzzy Firty, Rick Erickson, Ron Molina, Roy Estrada, Dick Fudge, Barbara Mattes, Gerry Tower, Carolyn Patten, Dolores Lara, Marlyce Thompson, Deanna Dolan, Linda Weinholz, Mary Molinari, Loretta Bollentini, Alberta Giannini, Lucille Morris, Bonnie Waddell, Wilma Tholen, and Wardine Riley.

November 12 officially brought the first quarter of the '57-'58 school year to a close. Report cards were given out Friday.

Christmas vacation is approaching and students will want to get jobs for that "extra spending money." Students who have jobs lined up have an opportunity to get out a week before Christmas vacation, December 20. If they don't have a job, they should see Miss Wood or Mr. Ivan, or go down to the State Employment Bureau and ask for an interview. In order to be excused from school to go to work, students must 1. Have passing grades in all subjects, 2. Arrange with teachers to make up work before December 13. 3. Bring a note from the employer to the counselor. 4. On December 12, the student must bring a note from home requesting that he be excused for work. 5. On December 13, students must have signed by each teacher a pre-arranged absence.

At the Health Building of San Mateo, October 31, a high school press conference was held for the North Peninsula schools. Jim Wilson, Maxine Tebeau and Ethel Shaw were those reporters who represented Jefferson. Purpose of the conference was to gather the reporters of the different high schools so that they could learn about the seriousness of tuberculosis—and how reporters can help the fight against this disease. The reporters will write articles about the material they have gathered from the meeting and the various pamphlets that were handed out and try to convince the students to take x-rays. The paper with the best article will win the plaque, which is in Jeff's trophy case, and will be entered in the state judging. If it wins, the paper will be entered in the national judging.

Nesi Tauoa, who comes from Samoa, is Jefferson's newest addition to the student body. Nesi, who is 16 and a sophomore, has been in America for only two months. A student here for three weeks, she likes it a lot.

REPAIR JOBS

Over three and one-half million repair jobs were performed on automobiles in the United States last year, reports the California State Automobile Association.

Work 'Progressing Well' On Final Stages Of Center

Work is progressing "quite well" on final phases of construction on the War Memorial community center, recreation director Dee Van Nest said today.

Van Nest said the last portion of the heating system is being installed and that it will be only a matter of days until it is in actual operation.

Once the inside wall and rooms are painted on the two new meeting rooms, floors will be laid and hardware installed on doors.

Work was scheduled to start this week on moving stored furniture into the new area, Van Nest said.

Van Nest indicated that the "completed product" would be ready for presentation to the public when the building is inspected at an open house December 19, in conjunction with the annual Christmas program.

TOO LITTLE, TOO LATE is the way we Dodge dealers feel about competitors' efforts to match the Swept-Wing 58. They lowered the roof some, but left the sides high. Their windshields got smaller while ours got bigger. So much for styling. Then, for another important comparison, take ride. Here's Dodge with Torsion-Aire suspension that just about everybody admits is the greatest advance in sway-free, dip-free, silent going that any car offers. So what do these other cars do? They borrow an air suspension system that's been used in buses for two years! (Costing well over $100.00 extra.) And most of 'em still don't have push-button driving—much less Dodge TorqueFlite—the proven automatic transmission. If you're a little disappointed in the '58 version of your car, come on in and see our Swept-Wing 58. The others are catching on—but they can't catch up.

In the evening, a ham dinner will be served, by reservation only. Seatings are at 5, 6, and 7 p.m., the price for adults being $1.50 and children up to 12 years of age, 50 cents. Mrs. Jane Whitehead is in charge of the ticket department, and reservations may be made by calling her at PL 5-2622.

For the admiration and amusement of all, booths and displays are varied and intriguing. New this year are the silent auction table, the hat stand, the noon telescope, and enlargement of the game section.

Ever-popular repeats are the sewing booth, with original and hand-made creations, ranging from highly practical cobbler aprons in all sizes to decorative and fanciful holiday gift wares; the novelty booth, featuring clowns, catch-alls, and collectors' items; the aromatic and diet-testing home specialty booth, with cakes, preserves and yummies for your tummies; and the garden booth, flowering, fragrant, and fun for green-thumbers.

Other popular departments to be featured are the White Elephants, the Grab Bag, the Wishing Well, and the candied apple booth staffed by the high school age group, the Westminster Fellowship.

CITES NEW METHOD

Episcopal Speaker Says Sunday School 'Obsolete'

Declaring the customary Sunday school, which expects children to absorb religious instruction given out in a passive environment, to be obsolete, the Rev. Canon Richard Byfield Thursday evening addressed St. Martin's Episcopal women's auxiliary at the vicarage, 94 Palmdale avenue, on "The New Look in Christian Education."

Canon Byfield, director of Christian education for the Episcopal Diocese of California, explained that the Seabury instruction program developed by the National Council of the Episcopal church is the result of a seven-year study of means to make religious teaching more dynamic.

Class discussion is the basis for the new method, he said, and teachers must be trained to capitalize on pupils' spontaneous remarks to demonstrate the Christian viewpoint as set forth in the Bible. Material to be covered has been classified so that each age level is approached in terms of particular interests.

Effectiveness of the new program depends upon its use at home as well as in church, he said, and a training class for parents is the first essential. Weekly worship for parents and children together and regular teacher training meetings are also necessary. Since St. Martin's has at present neither the physical plant nor the teaching staff to inaugurate the Seabury system in Westlake, he suggested a transitional program, giving more emphasis to teacher training, parent education, and class discussion, to develop facility in applying Christian principles to daily life.

St. Martin's women's auxiliary, of which Mrs. Richard T. Phillips is president, meets monthly to hear a guest speaker and to plan activities in support of the work of the church in this community.

CONGRATULATING Mrs. Everett S. Calhoun, YWCA National Board Member, on her splendid talk recently to YW Wives Clubs of northern San Mateo county, are Mrs. Stanley Wilson (Colma), Mrs. Lloyd Bobo (Westlake), and Mrs. William Hofmann (Colma). The event, attended by more than 65 young matrons from this area, was held in the Westlake clubhouse.

San Bruno Mechanic, Wife Arrested In Drunk Driving Case

A San Bruno mechanic and his wife were arrested by Daly City police at 1:45 a.m. Sunday after their car was halted on Junipero Serra boulevard near old Edgemar road.

Elmer L. Krause, 47, of 1192 Clark avenue, was charged with drunken driving and driving without an operator's license. His wife, Lillian, 44, was booked for being drunk.

Officers Frank Murray and Ralph Warren noticed Krause's auto making a wide turn on Alemany, then proceed south on Junipero Serra in "an erratic manner, many times crossing over the white line."

Stopped after a short pursuit, Krause and his wife changed seats in the front seat as the officers approached their vehicle.

Krause flunked both roadside and hospital sobriety tests, Murray reported. The mechanic refused to submit to a blood test.

The couple were released on bail to appear in municipal court next Tuesday.

Santa Claus Is Due In Westlake This Saturday

Old St. Nick will put in his appearance, aboard his fabulous new sleigh, which is loaded down with candy and toys for the trip, at 2 p.m. this Saturday afternoon. His sleigh is scheduled to come down South Mayfair avenue, turning into Lynnewood drive, and going south over to the Southgate stores. It will then turn back to the shopping center and will remain for the rest of the day at the head of the shopping court...where Santa Claus will dispense advice and candy canes to his young friends.

Santa Claus is scheduled to make a number of return trips to the center before Christmas. He will be back on every Wednesday and Friday afternoon, and on Saturdays from noon until closing time of the center. In addition he will be in Westlake the two days immediately preceeding Christmas.

To welcome Santa in, sixty Christmas trees have been put up in the shopping center, with more than a mile of lights decorating them. In addition the big carnival rides which are traditional with Christmas time, are in operation in the shopping center. The Streamliner train has been completely rebuilt with greater power for additional speed and comfort. The train offers the longest ride in Northern California, with over a quarter of a mile being covered in the two laps which it makes.

Santa will be in the shopping center evenings when the center is open.

POLICE officer Philip LaBruzzo hoists a 25-pound you-know-what as he shows one of many prizes to be awarded at the Thanksgiving Day dance this Saturday, November 23, in Our Lady of Mercy parish hall. Mrs. Thomas Nash (left) is chairman for the affair, sponsored by Westlake Festival committee for the parish. LaBruzzo is co-chairman. "Holiday Hi-Jinks" is theme of the spectacle which is expected to draw an overflow throng.

Council Terms Same After Ballot Canvass

George Mason will retain the two-year term on the Pacifica city council, as a result of a canvass of ballots by county supervisors last week.

Mason and Mrs. Jean Fassler, mayor, will serve two-year terms, while the remaining three councilmen will serve until April of 1958.

One two-year term was in doubt pending canvass of absentee ballots, since Councilman Don Miller had trailed Mason by only two votes. The final canvass did not alter the results.

'Quicker' Air Mail Delivery For DC Homes

The dispatch of air mail and air lift mail directly from Air Mail Field, International Airport, to Daly City has expedited this type of mail from two to four hours earlier, enabling carriers to deliver this mail on the same day as it is received, it was announced today by Postmaster Vincent P. Murphy of Daly City.

Direct dispatches to and from Air Mail Field eliminate costly rehandling and redispatching of mail at the San Francisco distribution center, resulting in not only a savings in cost of operation, but also in a faster mail service to patrons of the Daly City Post Office, Murphy stated.

This change was brought about through the combined efforts of Daly City postal officials and the postal regional officials, and was in conformity with the policy of the Post Office Department to give service to patrons anywhere in the United States within 24 hours.

TV and Radio

Through your "Window to The World"...Something for everyone...from the tinyest tot to grandparents...no, we aren't advertising Christmas gifts...we're talking about that "window to the world"...your television set. We have often commented that sometime during the week there is a program for everyone's taste. This was never brought home to us more clearly than last week when we attended three different press conferences and met a famous television actor from Hollywood, a number of local television stars, and a distinguished professor from Stanford University. The one quality that these personalities all had in common was that they were on television.

First we met and talked with Richard Boone who was nominated for two Academy of Television Arts and Sciences "Emmy" awards for his portrayal of Dr. Konrad Styner in the "Medic" series. A talented and versatile actor he has quickly stepped into the shiny black boots of a new personality known as "Paladin" and is now seen in a new CBS western series over KPIX on Saturday nights.

On to another press conference where we gathered some of KPIX's brightest stars. We chatted with Marian Rowe whose children's series "Adventure School" is without a doubt one of the finest children's programs on the TV lanes, and whose show honoring senior citizens "New Horizons" recently premiered over Channel 5 on Sundays...also talked with Faye Stewart and Charlie Dugdale whose bright "This Morning" show helps viewers get off to a happy start for the day...lovely Phyllis Skelton who delights the small fry with her storybook program "Read Along With Me"...and Deputy Dave and Captain Fortune who also entertain the bicycle set on Saturdays.

At our last conference we were privileged to meet John W. Dodds, distinguished author, English professor and director of special programs in humanities at Stanford University, whose thought-provoking series "The Measure of Man" makes its national television debut this week, and over KQED on Thursday. Produced by Channel 9, the series is distributed to all non-commercial television stations in the United States by the Educational Television and Radio Center.

So through your television you meet all types of programs ...all types of people. We don't walk into public libraries and sign out a whole shelf of books ...we don't stop at a newstand and buy every magazine. It is your choice and remember these programs are all free.

Jeff Indians, South City Load 'Big Game' Guns

Jeff, Warriors 'Even' For Traditional Tilt

By Roy Hurlbert

Try-hard Jeff and aroused South City, both 2-3 entering their Peninsula League finale, have at one another this Friday night in the 33rd chapter of the Indian-Warrior football rivalry.

The local Big Game, unless it rains or the earth quakes, will begin with customary sound and fury at 8 p.m. on the striped lawn of the Industrial City school.

Switch Possible

The tilt will be held the same place on Thanksgiving morn, 11 o'clock, if the weather is bad this Friday.

The Warriors hold 18 wins in the Jeff series and five games resulted in ties. South City's victory last season gave the enemy a share of the North PL title with Cap.

Last Friday second spot Burlingame handed Joe McGrath's Tribe their first shutout of the season, 33-0. At their best physical strength, the Indians awkwardly played their poorest game, McGrath said.

Burlingame, paced by vet QB Greg Stikes and soph surprise Dave Nogzinger, was far superior. The Panthers, coming off a 27-14 loss to Capuchino, tallied in each quarter. They led at the half, 14-0, and 27-0 going into homestretch.

Paul Pitches

Paul Tapia, scoreless upstairs for the first time, managed 13 hits in 29 attempts for 91 yards, the latter his season low. Jeff's luggers wound up with a sorry 22 net yards, while Burlingame rambled for 266. Overall yards found the Panthers far ahead, 415-113. First downs read 13-3.

Pete Garcia, rolling toward All-PL honors, was the best for Jeff on a very sorry afternoon. Pete, a junior, grabbed nine of Tapia's tosses for 64 yards.

Bob Berry, reserve Jeff flanker, was the lone casualty. A hard tackle in the third quarter put him in the hospital for the weekend. He's still woozy and indefinite for South City.

Halfbacks Healthy

McGrath's kids will be in fair shape this Friday. Art Banos is ready to open at left halfback, and Sonny Martinez, hurt on-and-off, may start at RH.

Dwayne Cook, put out two weeks ago with a bad hand, is the lone dependable absent up front.

Tapia, eyeing PL honors for total offense and passing yards, will throw hard as a moundsman this Friday. He has plenty of targets. Martinez, fast as all get-out, joins Paul's two best receptionists, Gary Ryan and the indefatigable Garcia. Tapia has been getting the message to Garcia all season. Both Pete and Ryan are gunning for all-league distinction.

South City, with Steve Anderson at the helm, has a fair-to-midlin' T-attack. Back Norm Carter and end Fred Nebolini light the fuses.

The Warriors, who dumped Westmoor, 20-7, after three straight setbacks, made it two in a row last week by smearing San Mateo by the same score.

Jeff beat Westmoor, 32-12, but lost to San Mateo, 19-6. Comparative scores aren't much to go on, though.

Rams Eye Win Over San Jose

Westmoor's Rams, their first varsity year ending in the Peninsula League basement, will be out to do a little salvaging this Friday afternoon as they conclude 1957 gridfare against non-loop San Jose.

The practice mix, beginning at 2:45 at the Westlake school, is anybody's ball game. Pete Matisi's Daly City lads, humiliated by high-strung Hillsdale here last week, 41-0, could wrap it up with a triumph.

San Jose, despite a very fine passer, is second division in the South Peninsula League. The invaders even lost to mediocre Willow Glen, a team Westmoor nipped 6-0 in the Ram's first tangle.

Hillsdale, piloted by college-bound Keith Mattos, played its season's best in routing the Rams. Even a sloppy field and miserable wind conditions didn't minimize the Mateans' effectiveness.

Matisi said his squad was "in" the ball game the first quarter. Thereafter, the Knights combined swift and savage blocking to make a track meet of it.

Hillsdale's breeze put the southlanders in third place behind Cap and Burlingame. Coach Frank Collin said his Knights hit their stride against the Rams.

For the campaign closer, Matisi will have the same lineup. It's Sid Swanson and Ray West at ends, Mike Abrahamson and Jim Lansing at tackles, Paul Giomi and Bob Simi the guards, and thick-legged Marty Knedel at center.

Swanson, Abrahamson and Roller, a kid with many aptitudes, are due some recognition when the All-Peninsula League teams are chosen by sportswriters.

East Bay Showdown . . .

UNBEATEN CAP, BERKELEY DUEL FOR 'TEAM OF YEAR'

Unbeatens Berkeley and Capuchino knock noggins this Friday across the bay in a showdown billed as the greatest match in Northern California prep football history.

Coach Paul Baldwin's Peninsula League leaders, batting 7-0 for the year, will be up against a best-ever Berkeley High squad, 8-0 for the campaign.

Berkeley Choice

Ranked number one in Northern California, the Berkeley eleven can cinch that title officially with a win Friday. Sparked by tailback Don Kasso, the single-winging Yellowjackets are a slight favorite, according to East Bay sportswriters. But Peninsula scribes believe QB Gene Tagliaferri and his thundering San Bruno mates have the stuff to get the job done.

An overflow audience, including college and university coaches from near and far, will witness the struggle. Berkeley High seats a capacity 5500. Some say 10,000 will show up. A practical plan to shift the contest to University of California's Memorial Stadium was nixed by the Berkeley principal.

The titanic boils down to a personal duel between Kasso, headed for Oregon State, and Tagliaferri, the 207-pound Mustang driver who can name his school if he makes up certain grades.

Tremendous Tailback

The Berkeley coach calls Kasso, a 6-1, 170-pounder, the "greatest player we've had in the school's history." Don is an outstanding carrier, averaging 8.3 yards a trip, and he also throws with accuracy.

Following single wing specifications, Berkeley's line is much heftier than the T-formation Capuchinos. Up front, the East Bayers average 208, while Baldwin's forward seven average 178. The Yellowjackets weigh more in the backfield, 184 to 178.

Like Berkeley, Cap is fierce on the ground. But Baldwin may have Tagliaferri pass more if the San Brunans encounter difficulty with their hosts' interior line. Kasso, too, should be fixing his calls. He knows Cap's only apparent weakness is air defense. Jeff High of Daly City punctured the Cap horde for seven TD's on passes but still lost the ball game, 68-45.

Capuchino's offense is so potent the Peninsula squad could yield a couple scores and still prevail. Across the pond, on the other hand, insiders claim Berkeley's defense is just about impenetrable.

Cap rocked potent McClatchy High of Sacramento last week, 14-0, in an exhibition warmup for the biggie. The losers are still rated in the first 10 teams of Northern Cal.

Ben Franklin, OLPHers, Westlake Park Squads Dominate City League

By Bob Leibe

The city's three touch-football leagues reach the final stages this Saturday with Ben Franklin, Our Lady of Perpetual Help and Westlake park sharing the conquerors' roles.

Ben Franklin's youngsters need only a win over Colma this Saturday morning at Trojan Field to bag the sixth grade title.

OLPH cinched the seventh grade crown with a nip-and-tuck 2-0 win over runnerup Colma school. War Memorial came in third, followed by Westlake Richfield and Westlake school.

In the eighth grade ranks, Westlake park rules the roost so far. Colma school and OLPH, locked for second, collide this Saturday morning. The winner moves into a tie with the parkers for the championship. Crocker school and Lincoln are near the bottom of the ladder.

Last Saturday's best tilt found Westlake Park downing Colma school on Ken Allison's 35-yard pass interception for a 6-0 edge. Tops for the winners were Carl Steigerwald, Steve Funai, Peter Pollat, Ed Koplowitz, Terry Boyle and Alan Hanley. Colma's leaders were Wayne Crane, Dan Luciano, Tom Enberg and Dennis Metheny.

In other action, Crocker nipped Lincoln, 6-0, via Pennington's 30-yard TD shot.

Colma took a pair from Westlake school, downing both the sixth and seventh grade units.

Brisbane Zeroed, Lead Sliced To Shaky ½ Game

Third place and rising Thur Meats swept three games from Brisbane Market on Tuesday to cut the DC-Colma League leaders to a half-game margin.

Second place Val's dropped two of three to United Market. The Thurmen are just a game out.

Top bowlers for the evening were George Curry, Thur's, a 604 series, and Bill Flagg, Vince & Fred's dispensers, a 228 singles.

Cops To Give Money To Aid League Here

The slow-getting-started but now rolling Police Athletic League of Daly City this week got another boost from the gendarmes themselves.

Their charter approved and boxing listed as the first activity, PAL directors have embarked on a Christmas project to bolster the $600 already in the treasury.

On suggestion of Officer Jim Welsh, all members of the police department, instead of mailing each other Christmas cards, will contribute about $2.50 to the PAL fund. Some 36 persons are involved in these donations, so quite a chunk of money is involved.

According to PAL president John Coleman, the new group needs about $2000 in the budget to launch its first year of sports activities for local youngsters, ages 8 to 18.

Response Mediocre

Public donations have been slim to date and a concerted drive is underway for needed funds.

The high school board of trustees have granted the PAL use of the Jeff High gym for boxing classes, set up to prepare PAL youngsters for the ring tournament early next year. The instructor will open the training camp Monday evening next week.

Also in the immediate offing is a PAL basketball team, for city league competition, composed of junior high school age boys.

All youngsters in the 8-to-18 age category who wish to join the PAL should contact the police station, 75 Wellington avenue, or phone Coleman and fellow officers at PL 5-0850.

Likewise, persons and groups wishing to financially assist the program, should contact the PAL directors through Coleman.

Adults Can Help

Individuals and groups donating will be granted active membership in the group. They also will be able to assist the police in planning activities.

Patterned after the New York City PAL, the Daly City unit has the objective of providing more supervised sports for youths, attempting to keep them busy in the right fields, and getting the community behind them. Curbing juvenile delinquency is the major goal.

Mayor's Gator Champs Host Rugged Cal Poly

Nearby Cox Stadium will be the site of "championship" football this Friday night when Mayor Joe Verducci's SF State gridders pull down the curtain against once-beaten Cal Poly, champs of the CCAA.

Little Joe's Gators bagged the Far Western Conference crown last week, storming to a 23-6 convincer over Chico State in a tangle of unbeatens.

Cal Poly, armed with a 211-pound average line and racehorse runners, has won 13 of the 15 grid meetings between the two schools. The Gators have managed just one win and a tie.

Peters, draft choice of the Green Bay Packers, is up for lineman of the year in Northern California and a sure choice for the East-West game. A Little All-American in 1956, Floyd is one of the country's best linemen, says the mayor.

Joe knows his football players. That's one of the reasons he's chief Pacific Coast scout for the pro Chicago Bears.

Kickoff Friday is 8 o'clock.

WHEEL BEARINGS

Don't neglect the wheel bearings in your automobile's regular lubrication servicing. A good time to have this done, says the California State Automobile Association, is when the wheels have been removed for other work such as checking brake linings.

Jeff Quintets Split Finale With Warriors

Mike Orlich's 10's lost, 31-29, but the Indian 20's romped, 42-27.

Jeff finished third in final 10's standings and second behind title-tied San Mateo and Capuchino in the 20's race.

Watt's Freshmen Blank South City Squad, 12-0

Bob Watt's enthused Jefferson freshmen bolted to a 12-0 win over favored South San Francisco last Thursday in the Peninsula League finale for both elevens.

Indian fullback Fred Baron capped the Jeff scoring drives with six-yard shots for both touchdowns. Watt's crew tallied in the first and last periods.

Victory gave the Jeff yearlings a second place tie with the Warriors. Both had 3-2 marks. San Mateo won the championship. Jeff losses were to SM, 19-7, and to Hillsdale, 26-0.

Watt wound up the campaign with the knowledge that many of his regulars are destined for top duty with the Jeff varsity.

The coach lauded the season work of QB's Jim Pfennig and Tom McEntee; Baron, of course and the halfback duty turned in by Tony Montalvo, speedy Ray Javier and Jim Lufrano.

Drawing praise for line efforts were ends Ira Ingersoll and Jimmy Junglas, tackles Gary Monyhun and Sam Ayala, guards Bob Aita and Ed Crowley (no finer pair in the league), and center Eric Nuner.

Pfennig and the oft-injured McEntee alternated at the controls. Watt's two guards and tackle Monyhun played outstanding ball all season, the coach said.
